1 INT. HOSTEL ROOM - DAY 1

It's a fine Sunday morning, and Rahul has finally decided to clean over his room after a month. It's no surprise if you have been in a hostel before.

Rahul is a teenage boy pursuing architecture from a Kanpur college. He is an introvert with a handful of friends, as he is more inclined to work and do his stuff.

CAMERA FOLLOWING RAHUL as he moves things rearranging the whole room.

He took up a box full of his notebooks and sheets, kept alongside the mirror, full of designs and planning drafts. He took the box outside his room.

LOUD MUSIC PLAYING FROM THE SPEAKER

There was a broken glass bottle below the wall-hang mirror. The photo earlier stuck on the mirror has fallen. He bent down to pick up the broken pieces of glass but got his fingers cut.

His finger starts to bleed. He takes his finger in his mouth to stop the bleeding. But as soon as the blood drops on the floor, lightning flashes into the mirror. He turned to see where it came from, and as he turned, the music stopped, leaving the whole room silent.

Rahul looked here and there for any clue.

FADE TO BLACK.

INTRO.

2 INT. LIBRARY - DAY 2

The central library on a typical day is full of students roaming around the corridors. But the first floor, as usual, is entirely silent; even turning a page from a book would create a loud noise.

Rahul was looking for a book on the first floor around the closed shelves. While searching, he reached the library's last part, the architecture section.

While searching on a shelf, a book fell from a stand behind him. He jumped at the sound of the book falling.

He looked behind for the book. It was a strange old-looking book, the cover page was torn up, and the pages had gone pale yellow with black corners.

Rahul bent down to pick up the book. He picked up the book and opened it, flipped some pages when the guard arrived and shouted at him

SECURITY GUARD
(fully dressed up with a stick in his hand)
bhaiya library band karne ka time hai aap bahar jaiye.

RAHUL
(nodded)

He closed the book and left it where it was.

FADE IN:

SOUND OF SOMEONE SCREAMING.

FADE OUT.

3 EXT. IN FRONT OF THE MORTUARY - NIGHT 3

CAMERA BEHIND THE CHAIR (IN FRAME OF THE BOARD OF MORTUARY)

In front of a mortuary, Rahul is tied to a chair on a lonely road. He is screaming and forcefully, trying to untie his hands and legs, moving the chair.

He is breathing heavily and shouting, with a few seconds break in between.

In no time, a shadow passes behind him, humming a song that is difficult to interpret. This is a folk song in some local accent.

Rahul stops moving for a second. The shadow rounds around behind his chair, humming the song with a loud voice this time, which keeps diminishing as it moves away. Finally, it completely disappeared, and Rahul again started to break away from the ropes, this time with more force.

Finally, he gets free and runs away.

JUMP CUT TO:

4 INT. HOSTEL ROOM - NIGHT 4

Rahul woke up from sleep with sweat all over his face, breathing heavily.

Dream it was; it was a nightmare. He moved his hand forward to pick up the water on the table and saw the Band-aid on his finger bleeding again.

He gets up and reaches the table where the First-aid box is kept. Again he sees the light flashing in the mirror.

Rahul looked around to see what it was but needed help finding something.

FADE TO BLACK.

5 EXT. FOOTBALL GROUND - DAY 5

The ground was full of players spread across the floor playing football, the coach training the players on one section of the land.

Rahul was dribbling with the ball when his shoe got stuck, and while running, he fell.

His knee got hurt, and soon, some blood started coming out. Someone helped him get up.

CUT TO:

6 EXT/INT. HOSPITAL - DAY 6

Rahul took a rickshaw towards the hospital.

Hospitals have always been crowded, but the corridors were empty this time. He got himself wound up and got some medicine required. He waited a few minutes to find some rickshaw, but no one came.

He decided to walk alone.

CUT TO:

7 EXT. MORTUARY - DAY 7

And on his way, he saw the same mortuary board he saw in the nightmare. He got goosebumps as he got flashbacks of the last night'sflashbackc.k

FLASHBACK

Usually, dreams get forgotten as the day passes, but something was weird; he remembered what came into his sleep by heart.

He moved closer to the board sign and looked around. It was the exact location that came into his nightmare.

FLASHBACK

The same chair on which he was tied was kept on the other side of the mortuary. He approached it and saw the ropes and a cube on the chair.

FLASHBACK

He took the cube in his hand and felt something was wrong. It was rough, and the paint had gone.

FADE TO BLACK.

8 INT. HOSTEL ROOM - NIGHT 8

It was night, and Rahul was resting on his bed while the same cube was in his hand. He was rearranging it while flipping it over his head

JUMP CUT TO:

9 EXT. FOREST AREA - NIGHT 9

Rahul starts running after getting free from his ropes and reaches a silent and alone forest with bats screeching aloud.

He was running at the best speed he could.

Suddenly he paused, bent down and started digging a hole in the ground. The forest was utterly empty. He has gone mad digging the whole.

Suddenly he paused and heard the same voice singing the same folklore. He looked around to see where it came from.

And as he was looking for it, he heard someone approaching near him, which speeded up. He got up and started running again as it was close to him.

JUMP CUT TO:

10 INT. HOSTEL ROOM - NIGHT 10

Rahul woke up from sleep with sweat all over his face, breathing heavily.

A nightmare again. He moved his hand forward to pick up the water on the table and saw the Band-aid on his finger bleeding again, and his knee was also bleeding.

He gets up and reaches the table where the First-aid box is kept. Again he sees the light flashing in the mirror.

He jumped and hurt his knee again. He got down on his bed with his hand holding his head - scared.

FADE TO BLACK.

11 EXT. ROAD - DAY 11

He is on his way home with his cycle. And as he moved down the road, he could sense no people.

As worst as it could get, his cycle chain got stuck. Rahul is so disappointed with everything happening to him that this causes him no surprise.

He started fixing the chain when a torch light flashed towards the other side of the road. He looked up and saw it was pointing towards a sign on the tree. The trees around him were the same as what came in his last nightmare.

He was standing by the side of the same forest.

FLASHBACK

He left the cycle there and approached the forest. He got deep into the woods.

FLASHBACK

And some point, he recognised the location from where he came running. After following the path for some minutes, he saw a small hole dug up in the ground. He ran to see it and found something after digging a bit deeper.

FLASHBACK

It was a tennis ball, which looked like being in its worst phase. There were scratches and marks. Also, the color faded.

FADE TO BLACK.

12 INT. HOSTEL ROOM - DAY 12

He took the ball to his hostel room and put it into the box on his table, where he used to keep all the small objects. He looked into the mirror, and the same torch light flashed.

JUMP CUT TO:

13 EXT. FOREST AREA - NIGHT 13

Rahul was running around the forest and could sense someone behind him. He saw a building as the forest ended and thought he could find shelter there.

He walked towards the building.

CUT TO:

14 INT. ABANDONED BUILDING - NIGHT 14

The building was all empty. The ceiling has gone down in several places; the wall was damaged as if the building had been set to fire years ago. Weird paintings, broken stairs, unwanted grown plants and trees inside the building.

He ran up to the first floor as he could see some light there, hoping to find some help.

He ran into the corridor, found one room, and locked himself inside. Rahul sat with his back on the door. He was breathing heavily and was all tired of running. He could hear someone singing the same folklore.

"BANG", "BANG"

Someone was beating the door from outside, again and louder.

JUMP CUT TO:

15 INT. HOSTEL ROOM - NIGHT 15

Rahul woke up from sleep with sweat all over his face, breathing heavily.

Another day, another nightmare. His finger and knee were bleeding.

He gets up and reaches the table where the First-aid box is kept. Again he sees the light flashing in the mirror. He lifted the water bottle and drank some water.

He found out that there was some blood around his nose. He ran towards the bathroom to clear the blood. It was 2'O clock in the morning, and the corridors were empty; the lights from all the rooms were turned off. As he was walking in the hall, the lights were flickering.

He washed his face and saw the same torch light in the mirror. This time it took a lot of work to digest all this.

He went to his room and took some pills to sleep.

FADE TO BLACK.

16 INT. HOSTEL ROOM - DAY 16

The next day, when he woke up, he started searching for whatever was happening to him, talking to some of his friends. But he needed to figure it out.

He searched about the places he was during his nightmare and finally got the location where he was in the last agony.

He packed some of the things in his backpack and approached that place.

CUT TO:

17 EXT. ABANDONED BUILDING - DAY 17

The building was empty as if it had been abandoned. To his surprise, this part of the city was never talked about. He even didn't know if this existed before.

As he entered, he encountered several views that were what he saw in the dream.

FLASHBACK

He moved to the first floor, where he found the room where he locked himself last night. As he entered the room, he could see not many things torn out of the paint and destroyed walls. There was something weird in the room. A rope was hanging from the ceiling.

But in one corner of the room, he could see something abnormal. A V-Shaped object which looked weird but attractive. He took it with him.

FADE TO BLACK.

18 INT. HOSTEL ROOM - EVENING 18

It was late evening; he was back home after inspecting the abandoned building. He found some weird wall paintings, spray-painted symbols and awful-smelling corners.

He carried the V-shaped object back home. He came rushing to his room and sat on his study table. He got the box kept on the table and spread what was in it on the table and separated the ball, cube and the V-shaped object from the rest.

He was observing each of them closely.

MATCH CUT TO:

19 INT/EXT. ABANDONED BUILDING - NIGHT 19

The bang on the door was slowly diminishing now. He was sitting by the side of door, calming down the breath.

When he got up and looked where he is and looked around in the room, he got a sight of a body hanging over the room. He was expressionless.

Again he heard someone singing the same folklore but this time inside this room. He felt itself closest to him.

He without even thinking for a second got out of the room running and without noticing got till the end of the floor. He fall off the first floor and took his last breath.

JUMP CUT TO:

20 INT. HOSTEL ROOM - NIGHT 20

He woke up once again from the dream. He had slept on the table only while assembling the objects. This time he was not in senses. He could not breathe properly.

FLASHBACK

As he was rearranging them he remembered the sight of the library when he was picking up the book and opened it. The blood from his finger got on the ball which resulted into eyeballs of a face.

Suddenly he got the sight of the image he saw on that book that day, and the objects aligned in the same way. Then, a tap. Something tapped him on the shoulder.

He looked back to see. He saw into the mirror his face which was covered in the blood. He got up and and went near the mirror to see his face. He could now clearly hear the voice singing the same folklore.

The torchlight flashed into the mirror but he was not surprised. The blood from his face fell down. The blood fall down on the sheet of paper where his photo had fallen.

FLASHBACK

CAMERA DOLLY OVER THE PIECE OF THE PAPER.

FADE TO BLACK.

21 EXT. MORTUARY - NIGHT 21

Rahul was tied to the chair and was sitting in front of mortuary. Just sitting and laughing.

Something behind him was singing the same folklore.

END OF SCRIPT